

VAC-SULES RABIMIC

Viral vaccine with aluminum hydroxide

Composition:

Rabies virus Pasteur strain  $\geq 1 \times 10^{6.5}$  DICT<sub>50%</sub> / mL

Excipients:

ClNa 6.8 mg / mL

ClK 0.4 mg / mL

Cl<sub>2</sub>Ca 0.2 mg / mL

SO<sub>4</sub>Mg 0.2 mg / mL

PO<sub>4</sub>HNa 0.2 mg / mL

CO<sub>3</sub>HNa 0.3 mg / mL

Red Phenol 0.01 mg / mL

Sodium thiosulfate 0.474 mg / mL

Aluminum Hydroxide 40 mg / mL

Thimerosal 0.1 mg / mL

Water for injectables q.s. 2 mL

Indications for use:

Vaccine to protect against rabies in canine, feline, bovine, ovine, swine and equine.

Target species:

Canine, feline, bovine, ovine, swine and equine.

of administration:

Subcutaneously or intramuscular in canine, feline, bovine, ovine and swine.

Subcutaneously only in equine.

Dosage:

Canine and feline: 1 mL. Vaccination starting at 12 weeks of age, with annual revaccination.

Bovine, equine, ovine and swine: 2 mL. Vaccination starting at 6 months old, and then annual revaccination or according to the veterinarian's discretion or regulations.

Conservation:

2°C – 8°C. DO NOT FREEZE.